19. Can distinguish between fact and opinion, with evidence from the text.

Whilst in Liverpool, Phileas Fogg would stay one night in prison.

Fact or opinion

What evidence can you use to support your answer?

This is a fact because it says in the text that they had taken him to the police station in Liverpool and he was going to spend the night there, before being taken to London.

Do the rest yourself.

1. Aouda thought that Mr Fogg was an honest and brave gentleman to whom she owed her life.

2. Passepartout and Aouda wanted desperately to see Mr Fogg.

3. The people who lived in Saville Row would have been very surprised if they had been told that Mr Fogg had come home.
